THE 1953
LEGEND

ART BY—JOANNE MARSHALL

PORTAGE HIGH SCHOOL

Crisman, Indiana

CONTENTS

In this 1953 Legend we bring you scraps of many little things—occurrences—put together for you to remember. But not only do we keep events as memories, we also remember the people who devoted double energy to their jobs so that we might benefit. It is to them that we dedicate this annual:

ADMINISTRATION Page 4

To Ted Kimmel, the trustee who puzzles out the behind-the-scene problems of the school—who keeps a never-ending vigil over our township.

CLASSES Page 7

To Bryan Shaddick, the man who encourages us in our search for knowledge—over whose desk comes everything from dating problems to scholarship award tests. He “lives” Portage—from considering pep session petitions to teaching math. classes. The personal interest he takes in each of us, his sincere and genuine nature we will remember always.

SPORTS Page 37

To Don Ditsler, who brought football to Portage. In his four years here he has established the Indians as one of the top teams in the Calumet Conference. His straight-from-the-shoulder talks will remain indelible in our minds.

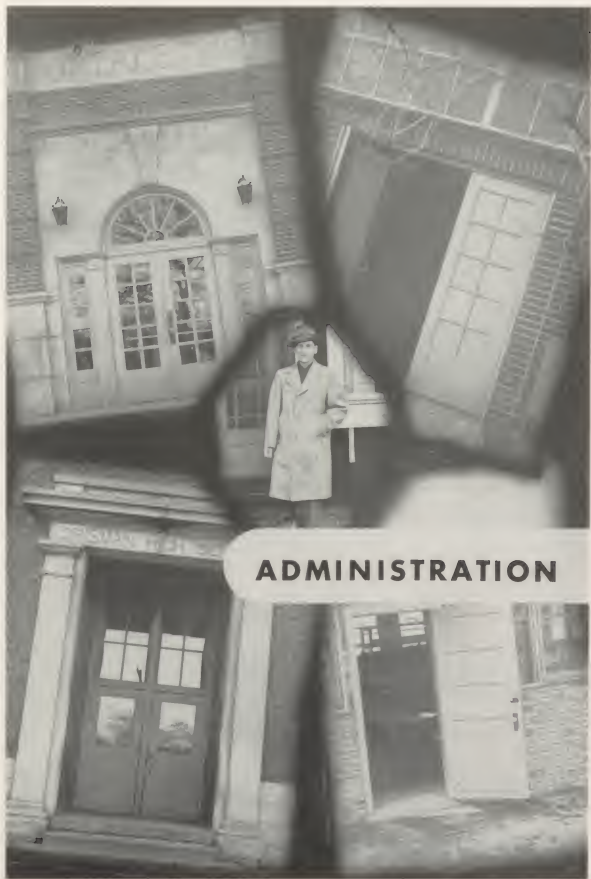

ACTIVITIES Page 55

To Rowena Kyle, a representative of the friendly spirit of teachers—whose neighborly chats and sympathetic understanding make us proud to be her friend. Personally popular, she seems simply to wave a magic wand to present a masterpiece of theater. But there is more to it than that . . . and we'll remember it.

SCHOOL FUN Page 71

To Roger Lindquist, the teacher who led us by example—who himself entered wholeheartedly into any venture we students were to undertake, from muddy-field marching to pep band jiving. His fun-loving, yet industrious personality we will never forget.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Wallace Aylesworth intones the daily announcements through the P. A. system.

Principal

Over a glass-topped desk in the first floor office pose the complex problems which face Portage in a transitional period. On that desk are letters from important people and from little people, plans for a new school building, requirements our school must meet, the percentage estimate of absentees because of the flu—these are just a few waves of the flood of problems Mr. Aylesworth handles so well.

In such a transitional period the school bookkeeper may find herself suddenly a nurse, a book-store clerk, or even a chauffeur. Marian Chellberg spends most of her time, however, keeping the Portage financial books balanced. Helen Foreman, with great efficiency, does everything from keeping the constantly changing files up to date to putting a band-aid on an injured student's wound.

Marian and Helen take time out to smile for the photographer.

Seniors

We seniors yelled for our football team till our voices were almost gone because practically the whole team was senior. And we smiled prettily for our portraits after we had presented a bang-up three-act senior play... had delectable Donna elected as Queen of the stupendous football dance. We also screamed boisterously at the basketball games 'cause our classmates were playing all over the floor to win for Portage. At the Tournament we cheered our team to victory as champs of the County. We combined dignity with madcapness, though... the battle of the term papers was our victory... semester tests we wished we had studied for are over. We'll survive the tearful baccalaureate, and look solemn at our Commencement. Many are the memories we take from Portage. And as we leave, we put a special value on those memories we shared.

SOPHOMORES

As sophomores we felt pretty adult.
 Elected our class officers;
 later sold Booster buttons.
 Had panel discussion on parliamentary procedure,
 and solved problems of the class in class meetings.
 We acted academic, but didn't fool the faculty at all;
 our class participated more in school activities, too.
 Finally we became more aware of the world that surrounds us, and now we climb one step higher in the ladder of education.

Cross Country

For the first time in the school's history a cross country meet was held at Portage. The Indian Warriors fared well against their seven opponents as they won five and lost two. Portage won all its home meets, as well as two of them away from home. The two-mile harriers never lost a triangular meet and finished tenth of twenty-three schools in the Hobart Invitionals. Portage just missed third place in the Calumet Conference meet.

Football

Five victories, two losses, and a tie paved the way for Portage's most successful season. Our hats are off to our coaches for their splendid job with the Indians.

Portage finished second in the Calumet Conference and placed eight men on the All Conference teams. Joe Sistaunch led the Conference in total yards gained. Larry King led the league in two departments—the most T.D.'s for an end and the most yardage gained on pass receiving. The Indian eleven led the conference in offensive scoring. And Larry Thorn gained the most yards per carry among his teammates. Congratulations, Indians!

D. Ditsler, Head Coach; K. Sheckard, Jr., Varsity Coach; A. Johnson, Line Coach.

Second row—L. McCasland, D. Nicoletto, L. Bradford, H. Labate, L. Thorn, T. Lenburg, R. Nemergut, D. Parker, J. Sistaunch.
First row—D. Thomas, E. Ross, D. Calvert, D. Whelpley, Mgr., J. Thomas, N. Fekete, J. Clem.

Indians Ambush Edison Ace.

Portage 13; Dyer 0

It was just three years ago that Portage played and lost its first football game to Dyer, 19-0. This year's encounter saw the Indians avenge, for the second time, its first football setback. King, Parker, and Sistanich scored Portage's thirteen points. The victory was doubly sweet, for not only did it put us in first place in the Conference, but also it was the first Portage home game.

Portage 13; Merrillville 7

Portage and Merrillville met for the second time in three years on the Pirate gridiron, with the Indians coming out on top. Behind the stellar line play of Dewey Thomas, Andy Volk, Don Calvert, and Ralph Nemerut, the Indian powerhouse began to roll. Dick Parker and Larry Thorn scored T. D.'s, with Joe Sistanich adding the extra point.

Nowhere to go but down.

Portage 6; Gary Edison 13

The jinx held fast as the Indians were dropped for the third time in as many games by the big Blazers of Gary Edison. Portage was definitely off its fine game as passes didn't work, power plays didn't gain yardage, and fumbles were frequent. Even plagued by these misfortunes, Portage almost pulled the game out of the fire, almost, but not quite. Sistanech was the only Indian to score.

Portage 20; Griffith 7

Dick Parker and Tom Brady filled the air with passes as the Indians moved into second place in the Conference by defeating high ranking Griffith. Once again the Indian machine was smooth. Don Calvert reached the height of his glory when he picked up a fumble and ran for a six-pointer. It was just one of those games when Portage could do no wrong.

End of the line.

Portage 26; East Gary 26

Credit Portage with the comeback of the year as they came from a 26-12 deficit in the final quarter to tie a hopped-up East Gary rival. Larry Thorn, the Indian's Most Valuable Player, scored twice, with Brady and Parker each contributing one touch-down. Ronnie Arellano, after missing the first two tries for the point after touchdown, split the uprights on his last two attempts.

Just try and stop me.

Portage 28; Knox 14

Journeying to Knox, the Indians went on the war-path in a game which saw two Portage men informed by the referees that they were not wanted on the field any longer. Thorn, Brady, and Sistanich scored for Portage.

Joe with that T. D. look.

Portage 0; North Judson 20

Portage's first Homecoming was spoiled by a tough Judson eleven. The game found the Indians unable to muster any kind of a sustained attack. Things just didn't go right.

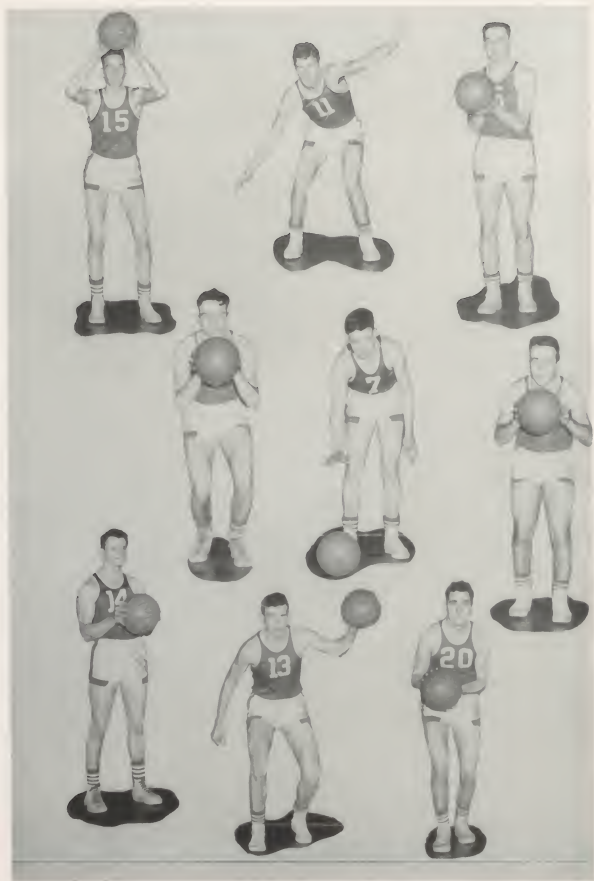

Let me at him.

Portage 26; Lowell 13

Lowell was the last game for nine Indian varsity seniors who really put the spark of life into the rest of the home squad. The scrappy Portage line cleared the way for King, Brady, Parker, and Sistanich to scamper to the goal line. Arellano converted on two of his four attempts. And so Portage's most successful season was brought to a close.

Basketball

Once again Portage fielded a great basketball team. The 1953 Indians returned to Portage some of the glory of past years when the Tribe was virtually unbeatable. Coach Karl Speckhard did a creditable job as he steered the Indians to Christmas and County Tourney victories. Although plagued by sickness and schedule difficulty in the first part of the season, the Indians proved to be the superior Porter County quintet. Some of the victims of the Red and White were Hebron, Wirt, Dyer, Valparaiso, Chesterton, Wheeler, Morgan, Liberty Center, Crown Point, and East Gary.

The team was led by its high-scoring captain, Larry King. 1953 was the year for big boys on the Portage roster, with Jim Blair, Tom Brady, Bob Selby, Milt Carlson, and Gary Bradford all over six-three. This height, coupled with the scoring power of King and the fine playing of Dick Parker, led to many a victory. However, these six boys alone could not bring Portage to the top; Larry Thorn, Joe Sistanich, and Jim Cressy gave the Tribe the necessary extra strength for a winning team. With Portage's winning both the Christmas and County Tourneys, this was truly our year for basketball.

Track

Two records fell as the Indian trackmen enjoyed their most successful season to date. Richard Clem set a new quarter-mile record, running it in 54 seconds. The half-mile relay team—Dick Parker, Larry King, Ron Puett, and Art Bergman—set a new record at one minute, thirty-six and five-tenths seconds. Rich Parker, a fine half-miler, was voted by his teammates as the team's most valuable man.

Baseball

Off to a fast start in the '52 season, the Indian nine blasted Jackson, 4-0, and staved off a last-minute rally by Liberty Center to win 5-4. But from then on it was anything but sunny for Coach Strelow's boys as they dropped their next seven games. Portage needed another good pitcher to help out Joe Sistanich; for the hitting was average—a little under five runs a game—but the opposition averaged eleven runs a game. With one more pitcher and another good hitter, the Portage nine could be tough.

Being on the Legend staff means carrying boxes of pictures around the school, spending weeks with glue-encrusted fingers, sawing cardboard, and lugging typewriters around. It includes instant coffee, fattening soda pop and cookies. We struggled to plan our dummy, then revamped it, trudged the streets for ads; with tired, muddled minds tried to think of clever remarks for the snaps. We crossed our fingers that last fall's loving couples would not break up and ruin our "pair page." When we've sent in our Legend, the staff can start sleeping peacefully again and going to classes regularly! But till then, come up to room 305½—there's work to do.

PRESS CLUB

What is the Press like? Well, it's a lot of things. It's reporters chasing news and editors chasing reporters. For some, it's begging, scurrying, searching, for others it's patiently and ploddingly counting letters to fit in spaces and then tapping the copy out on the typewriter. And it's inky fingers and mimeograph paper for still others. To be in the know and to know everybody is a requirement of a staff member. It's crossing off each issue with a happy sigh—a job done.

B A N D

Parades, athletic events, and concerts find the band ready to don their uniforms and give consistently good performances. Before school opened in the fall, our band had given two marching performances.

When school started, through the windows of the band room we could hear first "The Saints" prepared for the Marching Contest at Valpo. Our horn tooters and drum beaters won a "second" there. Then floating through the air came the noble notes of "Host of Freedom," being prepared for the Valpo Homecoming parade. Our band won the trophy . . . ours was the only band in the contest.

Now the tunes heard from the Myers-Hannewald domain changed. The band ground out, then polished up "Amparita Roca," among others, for three concerts, putting a lid on a successful season.

C H O I R

Fall introduced the forming of chorus classes and choir try-outs. We worked on new music and planned our fall concert. This concert was a huge success (much to the surprise of almost everybody!) and soon we began to look forward to Christmas songs and carols.

Winter was kind to us this year, allowing us the Christmas program that it had cheated us of last year. This convocation displayed our work as an organization well-fitted to produce many amazing effects. In our winter concert we took a turn at the heavier music; and believe me, people began to sit up and take notice. A combined concert with Chesterton added to our experience, because by now our choir was beginning to age and flavor, getting ready for the contest.

Spring added brightness and gaiety as we worked hard on the music before journeying to the contest. The spring concert, filled with light music, was fun to prepare. Last came Commencement, where we sang the traditional graduation music. We who remained bade our senior friends farewell and looked forward to singing in the choir next year.

DOUBLE SEXTETTE

"See Indiana First" might well have been the motto of the double sextette this year as its twelve voices carried the spirit of Portage to numerous places and to over 4,000 people. Yes, all the way from the Paw Paw Patch to the Tables Down at Morey's and back again the double sextette sang their way through the year, having loads of fun and gaining unlimited experiences. With their informal programs, no one but Mr. Myers knew for sure what was going to be sung until the time came for that first chord to be sounded.

Monday night rehearsals conditioned the group for the tour and for the spring music contest. If their audiences received half the pleasure that this group experienced, then this year was fruitful.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

The limited membership of the A-V Club proved to be small when it undertook the task of running the projector in all classes scheduling films, as well as for Student Council convocations. Nevertheless, we found time to sponsor a dance in our "off moments." With the proceeds, our club purchased a new film splicer. (Experts though we may be, films still break.) Another purchase handled through our organization was that of a case for the projector.

LA TERTULIA

The members of this organization hold meetings every Friday (provided that there is no convocation that day). During these meetings they listen to the most popular recordings of Latin-American crooners and balladeers. At times neighboring classes wonder how far they must carry the Good Neighbor Policy when La Tertulia bellows out the Spanish version of Old MacDonald. These synthetic Spaniards roll their rr's and speak with "tilties" on their N's. They can easily set an atmosphere thick with accent, no?

Seated—M. Metzger, B. Voigt, S. Perona, F. Frum, M. Ginn, Secretary '52, S. Ehlers, Secretary '53; D. Davie, D. Hawkmon, K. Aller.

THE SPIANS

A "half of a room" was the jumping off place for a great dramatics department. It is primarily Mrs. Kyle's speech classroom. But to enthusiastic "Kylites" it is a combination workshop, make-up room, classroom and little theater.

This room saw the organization of a new club—Thespians. From it overflowed such enthusiasm for acting that it spread schoolwide. From the dramatics class stemmed student direction of one act class plays. The theater season also included a trio of one-act plays directed, staged, and acted by the Thespians.

Taken at our first formal meeting.

Miss Messick, creator of Brenda Starr, was our guest speaker.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is a new organization here at Portage. It consists of approximately 48 students whose main interest is to keep our library a better and more pleasant place in which to read and study.

The library assistants are busy people! So far this year they have catalogued books, have worked with the P. T. A. in sponsoring Portage's first Book Fair, have had new book shelves made, and have ordered, received, and processed many new books. In addition to this, the assistants keep the library looking in "tip-top" shape. New bulletin boards are put up every two weeks; various plants are set around the room; and everything is dusted every day. This is the only club that can boast membership of six goldfish, too.

The Library Club is not all work and no play. Their social outings included a visit to the Chicago Public Library, a bowling get-together, a banquet, and a roller skating party.

G. A. A.

Spare moments are sport moments for many girls at Portage. More than a social club, G. A. A. involves sportsmanship, skill, and exercise. This year we remember those jaunts to the Gary pool, our bowling sessions, and team games such as basketball and baseball. Our new schedule was successful, under the direction of Miss Adkins.

Seated: P. Smith, B. McBride, J. Taylor, S. Baker, D. Gilbert, C. Reed, D. Kerseg, M. Carlson, President; R. Davis, Secretary, S. Perona, R. Parker, R. Selby, K. Ziegenhagen, K. Petersen, L. McCasland. Standing: A. Halon, D. Jones, J. Swab, M. Nicoletto, J. Wellman, M. Metzcus, L. Borg, L. Edwards, W. Tittle, J. Cressy, L. Long, P. Crisman, Mr. Shaddick, Sponsor, M. Parker, G. Bradford, B. Kimmel, J. Marshall, L. Ripperdan.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In the beginning we had the idea that each of us should do his best—that each of us should do the things that we would do as a good citizen. We changed Freshmen Initiation into Freshmen Activity, planned Homecoming celebration, carried out a mock Presidential election, and put on outstanding convocations. In our Council, individual ideas were thrown together, then transformed into action.

SCHOOL FUN

SENIOR HIGHLIGHTS

An overwhelming majority of our class chose Bob to be our president, and an equally great number of us voted him an outstanding senior. That grin reflects his ready friendliness. Bob is a born diplomat, an active committeeman, and an all-around swell fellow.

Dick's main activities included football and basketball. One glance at those sports action shots will convince you that he is a valuable athlete. We consider him an asset to our class.

Sharon's Pow Wow editorship wasn't the only reason why she is a special person. We like her quiet, unassuming manner—her neatness—her shy humor—her academic and extra-curricular success.

A school-wide election named Lou our Legend Queen. Pert and perky, Louise is also vivacious and energetic—smart, too. Everything from planning never-fulfilled class trips to working after school on the Legend she does willingly and well. Our congratulations to Queen Lou!

Tom's active interest in athletics, his clean-cut features, his honest sportsmanship have made him the ideal of many underclassmen. And we think that makes him extra special here at Portage.
